

BioNote

Professor Timothy G Short MB, ChB, MD Otago, FANZCA

Timothy Short is a Specialist Anaesthetist in the Department of adult and trauma anaesthesia and perioperative medicine at Auckland City Hospital and also practices Neuroanaesthesia at MercyAscot Private Hospital in Auckland, New Zealand. He has special interests in benzodiazepine pharmacology, depth of anaesthesia, neurosurgical anaesthesia and clinical outcomes research. During his career he has also worked in Australia and Hong Kong.

He is an Honorary Professor in the Department of Anaesthesia, School of Health Sciences, University of Auckland and a member and past chairman of the executive of the ANZCA Clinical Trials Network. He has an MD in Benzodiazepine Pharmacology, has published over 130 scientific papers 12 book chapters and taken part in 18 international multicentre clinical outcome studies. He currently pursues research interests in neurosurgical anaesthesia and anaesthetic pharmacology and was principal investigator of the Balanced Study, a multicentre outcome study of the influence of anaesthetic depth on patient outcome after major surgery.

He is a national sailing umpire and has keen interests in natural history, ornithology and farming.